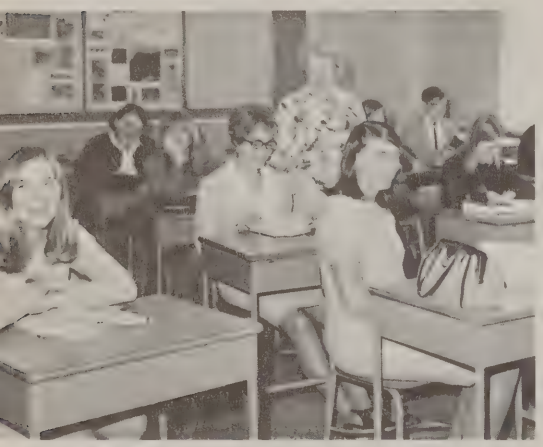
The Sea of Our Life

We are all voyagers on the sea of life and as we face its turbulent waves, we steer a smooth course across them. Our class has had the instructive and guiding hands of our teachers, family and community steering for us and charting the courses necessary for our welfare. We have crewed for twelve years on our school's ship with each new year entrusting to us added responsibility. All was in preparation for today, the day when we each embark upon a new ship, our own, to captain, steer and maintain. We leave our constant protection and, accompanied by the education we have received, we shall strive to direct a successful course for ourselves. Yes, today we say goodbye to Barnstable, but not before we reminisce about four years which have given us many memories.



1964 was our Freshman year of training and we lost no time in electing as our head crew: President, Marc White; Vice President, Diane Carr; Secretary, Sharon Morrison and Treasurer, James Crockett. Our representative to Student Council was Rose Marie Clement.

We became involved in the school's activities and held our first dance, the "Snowball." Our most able-bodied hands became members of the Junior Varsity athletic teams.

When the sophomore year arrived, our lead hands were elected: President, Marc White; Vice President, Diane Carr; Secretary, Nancy Sunderman and Treasurer, James Crockett. Judy Crocker and Joyce Adler became new members of the Student Council. Honored as Key Club members were; James Murray, Marc White, Edward Buckler, Joseph Borsari, Andrew Howard, Kenneth Perreira and James Crockett. Code Club, its feminine counterpart, chose; Elizabeth Bowen, Deidre Babbitt, Diane Carr, Nancy Sunderman, Denison Cary and Gail Manning. James Barrows entered the American Legion Oratorical Contest.

We added shekels to our treasury by taking charge of refreshments at the Town Meeting.

Now, with two years completed successfully, we entered our Junior year, which promised many activities. To serve us during this busy year of training, we elected: Marc White, President; Edward Buckler, Vice President; Nancy Sunderman, Secretary and Sharon Morrison, Treasurer. New members of the Code Club were; Karen Aylmer, Barryanne Covell, Kathy Davies, Karen Hogan, Kathy Hogan, Marsha Manni and Debbie Mazzei. Gail Manning became Code Club secretary. New Key Club members included Dennis Chang and James Sherman. We selected, as new Student Council members; David Dore, Janis Hinckley and Pat Cressy. Those elected to the National Honor Society were; John Mackenzie, Karen and Kathy Hogan, David Webster, Denison Cary and Joyce Adler.

An exchange-student program, new to our school, presented Fiona Hudson from Australia, as a new member of our class.

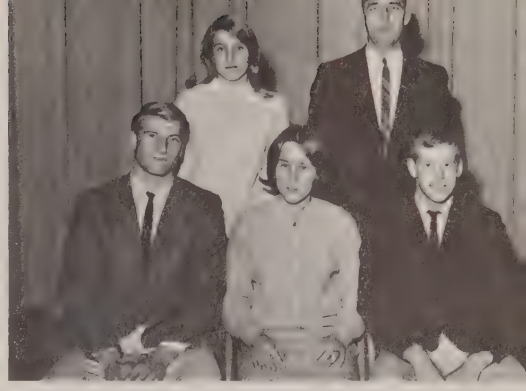
We set out on the traditional Junior candy sale with zest, in order that our prom expenses would be easily provided. The sale was a success and allowed our dreams of a Polynesian theme to come true. Beautiful pine-palm trees and an actual waterfall romantically arrayed the gymnasium.

The unusually fine decorations were prepared by a committee headed by Pat Cressy. That evening, Pat Cressy reigned as Queen, with Princess Pat Hopkins, Pat Lebel, LuVerne Duarte and Deborah Murphy.

Chosen for Massachusetts Girls' State was Gail Manning and for Boys' State, Marc White, Peter Webster and John Denninger. James Barrows and Nancy Dunne participated nobly in the American Legion Oratorical Contest and in the Massachusetts Speech Festival, Sharon Morrison and Nancy Dunne won state gold medals.

At last, the college boards were administered for the first time to many of us. Soon the National Merit Scholarship tests were given. Deborah Farin, John Mackenzie, Susan Shane, Barry Blanchard and Denison Cary all received letters of commendations for their superior performances on this test.

We received our class rings, reminders that our training would soon be over.



With the arrival of September, 1966, we prepared for our last and most involved year of training. Marc White was elected President, Barry Blanchard, Vice President, Nancy Sunderman, Secretary and Sharon Morrison, Treasurer.

A new captain directed our ship. Mr. Paul Prescott came to our school to replace our friend, Mr. Briah Connor, who had requested retirement duty. Our new captain instilled in all of us the new "Spirit of B.H.S." This new feeling was exhibited by the students, for our athletic teams, especially during the exciting football season. The drill team, under leaders Debbie Murphy and Diane Carr, entertained the spectators, assisted by the band, majorettes and cheerleaders. At the annual football dance, Debbie Mazzei was chosen Football Queen, with Princesses Barryanne Covell and Nancy Sunderman. These three beautiful girls reigned at the Thanksgiving Day football game.

After the men stopped playing football, the girls took over the sport in Powder Puff teams, under captain and chief monster, Jo Ann Ames. The senior girls matched their skill in a game with the junior team, which resulted in a tie score. The school learned of hidden physical talent possessed by its women students. Our magazine sales added many dollars necessary for our senior year activities.

Christmas time found our Code Club and Student Council members holding a party in the school. With funds provided by student body contributions, "Operation Kindness" was held for the benefit of underprivileged children from the Boston area. Senior class members served as "big brothers and sisters" for the children.

We were able to learn of Argentine manners and customs from our exchange student from Argentina, Carlos Kruzelniski, who came to spend our senior year with us.

Nancy Dunne and James Barrows competed in the American Legion Oratorical Contest, Jimmy winning the school competition.

Many honors were bestowed on class members. Denison Cary was selected B.H.S. Junior Miss, and Denison and Barry Blanchard were chosen for the Telfad program. David Dore attended Student Government Day and Marc White was the recipient of the Hinkle Sportsmanship Award. John Mackenzie won the Renssalear Polytechnic Institute Award for scholarship.

The Code Club selected as its president, Gail Manning; Vice President, Deidre Babbitt; Secretary, Marsha Manni and Treasurer, Debbie Mazzei. New Code Club members were Debbie Murphy, Nikki Bourne, Joanne Butkus, Sharon Morrison and Susan Shane. Fiona Hudson, exchange student, was elected an honorary member. The Key Club officers were: President, James Murray; Vice President, James Sherman; and Treasurer, Dennis Chang. New Key Club members were Barry Blanchard, Fred Maki, James Barrows, David Hansen, Scott Anderson and Joseph DeMartino. The Key Club elected as their Sweethearts, Lynda Frattalone and Stella Olsen. New National Honor Society members were; Marc White, Susan Shane, Marsha Manni, Barry Blanchard, Lois Burnett, Rose Marie Clement, Judith Crocker, Susan Oikelmus and Margaret Kelly. The Student Council new members included Charlene Clement.

We experienced the sadness of losing a good friend when our class advisor of the past three years, Mr. Cameron, left our school to return to active duty in the armed forces. Mr. Naylor, our new counselor, immediately pitched in to plan our next activity, the senior prom. The prom committee, directed by Marsha Manni, chose "Under the Sweetheart Tree", as the theme for the February prom. Amidst soft lights, Joyce Adler was chosen Prom Queen, attended by Princess Rita Emrich, Sarah Sherman, Joanne Butkus and Sharon Morrison.

Now this phase of our training is over. We are here to receive our final orders, our diplomas. Our separate ships await, to carry each of us away, but it is assured, that though the years may pass and the sea may carry us far away, Barnstable will always remain a part of us.

Vocational High School Class History

In September of 1963 our amazing group of bewildered Freshmen entered the halls and shops of the Vocational High School. It was a topsy-turvy world that year to the upperclassmen, since there were new teachers, a new director, and many new rules and regulations. Mr. Victor Mazzarella, like us, had arrived. With Mr. Mazzarella came a whole bevy of new rules to tighten up discipline, improve instruction, and most of all to change the attitudes of those both in and out of vocational education here in Barnstable.

Mr. Donald Wrightington became the newest member of the faculty, teaching English and Civics, and Mr. Gerald White took over a newly renovated Horticulture Department. In mid-year, the colorful Fred Creed departed for the ocean blue to be replaced by Mr. Arnold Burch. All of these persons arrived; and so did we. With Mr. Welch and Mr. Wrightington serving as co-advisors, our Trade Council ventured into the unknown world of profit and presented the amazing appearance of the world famed Harlem Diplomats comedy basketball team. It was a screaming, howling success. As a result our first Trade Council, awards were given at graduation. Many of us remember most the hard transition to our "new type" of gym classes, and our walks to and from lunch to the beat of bursting firecrackers.

In Sophomore year we named Leno Mendes and Bill Cahoon as vocational school representatives to our class. Mr. Mara and Mr. O'Donnell arrived as new instructors. The Cooperative work program began, but so did accurate accounting of absences. How we feared the latter! Our year was enhanced with some laughter brought on by the disappearing boys' room door. The new outboard motor repair course began and was soon to blossom into our most popular course under the direction of new arrival Mr. Robert Nelson.

Junior year brought our Trade Council a new venture, the memorable spaghetti supper. With the leadership of Mr. Mazzei, and the great cooperation of the high school drama club, the supper and play afterwards were a great success. Our year was heightened by the arrival, and later departure, of Mr. Tolley, and the addition of Mr. Charles Allia to the staff. New attitudes sprung up at the urging of our class advisor, Mr. Wrightington, toward cooperation with our class counterparts in the high school. Our class representatives Leno Mendes and Bill Cahoon became more active and spurred great participation in the memorable Junior Prom. Peter King and John Canto made their mark in varsity basketball. Wayne Enos displayed his usual talents by winning the local F.F.A. speech contest and going on to the regional contest at Westport High School.

Senior year, of course, has been the big one. Its importance dawned on us early when our advisor became pushy about class dues. Leno Mendes was a repeat as class representative and was joined in this endeavor by Wayne Enos. Several boys became involved in the cooperative work program including Pete King, Jeff Bassett, Dave Eaton, Bill Jones, Joe Wittenmeyer, Tom White, Phil Perez, Ed Matthews and Gordon Court. As the president of our Trade Council, classmate Phil Perez led the way to our Battle of the Bands program. Our stormy captain, Mr. George Warren, made his voice known in the Boat Shop and the halls. Tony Souza and Mike Smith joined us as latercomers to the class. Frank Gorman made his varsity letter in football and our school became the source of more and more of the strength of Barnstable High's athletic teams. In addition to Mr. Warren, our faculty was enhanced by Mr. Hugh White, Mr. Henry McGonigle, and Mr. Camille Houde. The days slipped by with yearbook pictures, senior superlatives, band battles, senior prom, and rough seas in Cafeteria A. Finally graduation was upon us and the road is ended. Or has it just begun??

Happy Interlude

Seldom has a holiday act of warmth produced such a favorable reaction with the general public as the "Operation Kindness" project sponsored at Barnstable High School last week.

Class members entertained 30 orphans, aged 5 to 7, from a Boston suburban settlement house. The youngsters were given a real Christmas party with gifts and Santa Claus.

The party actually started with a suggestion made by Principal Paul K. Prescott and he was joined in the idea by members of the Student Council, Code Club, Key Club and Senior Class.

The youngsters were brought from Boston in a bus and the trip eventually took on all pleasures of a day in the country.

The party was held in the school gym and the bleachers were crowded with school students who seemed to get as much out of the party as the youngsters cavorting out on the floor.

High school students collected the toys, refurbished them for presentation as gifts and, in general, supervised the party from start to finish.

Barnstable scores are on the right.

Although our soccer team came out on the bottom in the majority of their contests, they never gave up. Their spirit and incessant efforts to win were built through the efforts of Coach Howes, Assistant Coach Warren and team captain, James Sherman. The seniors, setting the example, backed the team emphatically and were followed by devoted undeclassmen. Members shown are: Don Williams, Alan Findlay, Charles Lewis, James Crockett, James Sherman, Thomas Mazzei, Arthur Belanger, Win Brooks, Dennis Chang, Howard Monroe, Jonathan Larkin, Neil Cohen, Scott Anderson, James Peterson and Mr. Howes.

Field Hockey

This year's field hockey squad was made up principally of underclassmen, the school having lost thirteen senior hockey players at graduation '66. However, these new players came through with great spirit, ambition and hard work. Their efforts paid off, with a 7 win, and 2 tie season. Such a remarkable season, under adverse conditions, is a tribute to their coach, Miss Katherine Nehubian. Members shown are: Janice Rapp, Nancy Garran, Joan Cross, Sheryl Bailey, Susan Powers, Deborah Monterio, Susan Scudder, Diane McClane, Beth McDonald. 2nd row—Joanne Britto, Karen Young, Janet Powers, Kathy Fernandes, Carol Hendrick, Joanne Ames, Pat French, Nancy Brophy, Cindy Ames, Margaret McEvoy, 3rd row—Susan Scott, Diane Carr, Elizabeth Clarke, Luvern Hurtt, Rose Bell, Jane Hurley, Pam Moore, Carol Ann Hurley, and Jill Emery.

Golf

Under the coaching of Mr. Rogean, the golf team have proved to be consistently capable players. Several good members graduated last June, but the ranks have been filled by '67 class members, O'Neil, Spinney and Daly. Kent Hudson, an outstanding player, will fill the roster for the top foursome. A return of past lettermen, who are underclassmen, will insure a continuation of fine golf playing. Members shown are: Robert O'Neil, Kent Hudson, Edmund Spinney, John Daly and Coach Rogean.

Tennis

The varsity tennis program at B.H.S. is still young, so most of the competition is limited to intramural play. Since the Cape has only a few official tennis teams, Barnstable meets only Dennis-Yarmouth Regional and Lawrence High of Falmouth, in inter-scholastic competition. Coach Naylor, however, works with both beginners and veterans, both boys and girls, on a daily basis during the spring months. This is one sport which can be pursued by students long after school days have passed. Tennis is a highly competitive sport, but invigorating and exciting.

Varsity Tennis Teams

Track

Track competition is slowly, but surely, becoming a challenging sport at B.H.S. With the cross-country events of the fall and track events in spring meets, the boys get plenty of good hard work. New members and return of lettermen promise an exciting season. Events include the mile run, shot put, discus, javelin, dashes and relays. B.H.S. competes on both regional and state level. Members shown are: Robert Jordan, William Naylor, Theodore Eaton, Don Hedderig, Nelson Belanger, Jonathan Carlson, Reginald McDowell, Coach Clarke, Peter Brooks, Harold Black, Albert Bourgeois, Paul Lavalee, James Barrows, Hugh McGoldrick, James McDonald

On Saturday, February 25, 1967, the Red Raider hockey team played a 5 to 1 victory over Bourne, and by so doing, clinched the FIFTH STRAIGHT Cape Cod Hockey League Championship for Barnstable High. These true champions place all credit on one man, Coach Elliott MacSwan. The players, the school and the community are deeply indebted to this man for his devoted attention to a sport which is relatively new to our little peninsula. We salute these hockey champions, but better still, we salute men who displayed true sportsmanship.

The homely hen lays one.
The codfish never cackles
To tell you what she's done.

While the humble hen we prize,
Which only goes to show you
